

WELCOME To

Channel 17/Town Meeting TV!

We thank you for volunteering your time in the cause of democracy and public education. You are part of CCTV/Channel 17's years of interesting, alive and community-minded TV.

Volunteers and apprentices make free speech possible. There are a number of satisfying opportunities if you are interested in media and how government works. Openings for live show camera operators, directors, field producers, archivists, tech support and media policy enthusiasts.

Channel 17 volunteers:

- Work as a part of a large network of free speech supporters
- Make local television possible
- Weave together your interests and your personal networks
- Gain access to training, tools and channels
- Expand their reach and impact.

Request a Tour and Submit your Application to make free speech, public access and open networks possible in the future.
